ADA Reasonable Accommodations

The RTA is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities, including physical access to our offices, programs, services, websites, public meetings, audio, visuals, and speech aids, as needed.

To request an accommodation, modification or if you feel you have been discriminated because of a disability, contact:

RTA ADA Coordinator
Regional Transit Authority of Southeast Michigan
(313) 402-1020
CivilRights@RTAmichigan.org

Disability accommodation and reasonable modification requests are typically reviewed within 72 hours or three business days. We actively solicit and consider the input of requestors concerning preferences regarding accommodations and modifications.

ADA Reasonable Modifications

The RTA is committed to providing reasonable modification to its policies and practices as well, including services, administration, and other standards that could be a barrier to participating in our public meetings or using RTA transit.

You may also file a complaint with Federal Transit Administration Office of Civil Rights
